Welcome to the American Half Quarter Horse Registry, and thanks for your interest.

The AHQHR recently merged with the World Wide Quarter Horse registry and represents members from all over the globe. The popularity of the half quarter horse makes AHQHR one of the fastest growing registries in the horse world.

With the tremendous versatility, of the American Quarter Horse, and it is only natural that many other breed owners want to cross their stock with the Quarter Horse. The temperament and athleticism of the American Quarter Horse, along with its beautiful conformation and gorgeous colors, make these outcrosses both unique and special.

Everyone likes to know as much possible about a horse they are buying, and there is no better predictor, than to know its breeding and ancestry, which, in a nutshell, tells what to expect of it, both physically and mentally. Registration provides information on ancestry and horses registered with AHQHR are eligible for programs that also document performance.

Horses that are eligible for registration must have one parent registered with either AQHA or APHA, or have both parents registered with the American Half Quarter Horse Registry.
